

BT Archives image gallery

For more fascinating images of telecommunications,
visit our image gallery at www.bt.com/archives

Front: Young People's exhibition, 1932
Back: Ideal Home exhibition, 1970

BT Archives image gallery

For more fascinating images of telecommunications,
visit our image gallery at www.bt.com/archives

Front: a car radiophone, 1960
Back: early mobile phone, 1990

BT Archives image gallery

For more fascinating images of telecommunications,
visit our image gallery at www.bt.com/archives

Front: temporary press room near Sandringham, covering death of George V, 1936
Back: press tent at Silverstone, 1986

Introducing...

STED

SUBSCRIBER

TRUNK

DIALLING

50th anniversary of subscriber trunk dialling

Front: Leaflet circulated in 1958 in the Bristol area for the introduction of subscriber trunk dialling. Bristol was the first area in the UK to receive the new service.

Left: The Queen opening the STD system at Bristol telephone exchange, 5 December 1958. Mr E Marples, the Postmaster General, sits beside the microphone, whilst Prince Philip sits at the Queen's left.

Explore the history of telecommunications at www.bt.com/archivesonline and www.connected-earth.com

